Topic: “Coaching Your Team to Victory!”

Scripture: Ephesians 6:1-4

Intro:

- The Bible tells us what not to do as Dad’s – don’t rule with an iron fist (Col. 3:21)
- The Bible tells us what to do as Dad’s – to coach our kids so they are ready to step into God’s calling on their life

Things you need to know as a coach...

1. Know the game you’re playing

- The world will scream at you to play one game but God calls us to play a different one.
- The Bible is our play book, the coaching for dummies book.
- Is. 55:8, Romans 12:2

“The one with the most toys does not win in the end so don’t coach like it does”

2. Know your team

- God created your kids and has a plan for them. (Eph. 2:10)
- Do you know what your kid’s gifts are and are you fanning them into flame?
- What position do your kids play in God’s game?

3. Have a Game Plan!

- Proverbs 29:18
- Without a regular revelation from God we end up getting squeezed into the world’s mold and playing its game.

4. Encourage – 1 Thess. 5:11

- Our kids need some encouraging chatter on the sidelines.
