A note from Pastor Owen...

"It's important that we make a big deal of Easter. Jesus rose from the dead and He's alive forevermore. That's reason to celebrate! Sing, shout, laugh, dance, praise, do cartwheels if you can, but most of all...rejoice! When I was a child, the Easter bunny and chocolate eggs were a big event in our house. I mean a really big event! My sister and I were beside ourselves with excitement. To this day, I can still recall how thrilling those moments were. But when I came to know Jesus Christ as my personal Lord and Saviour, my understanding of Easter changed dramatically. I knew Easter was not about hunting for Easter eggs, as much fun as that was (and still is...in my thinking!), but was about the fact that God's Son took our place on the cross, died and rose again from the dead to prove once and for all that He is the Messiah, the Saviour of the world, and the King of all kings. Christianity rises or falls on the truth of the resurrection. If it didn't happen, then Christianity is just one more religion among many other good ones and we may as well content ourselves with egg hunting. But because we maintain that there are substantial reasons to believe it did happen, everything is different for us. Jesus is alive and has the power to change our lives! He's loose and may show up anywhere at any time. Let there be music and singing and dancing and celebrating! Pull out all the stops! Fill this place today with songs of triumph. Jesus Christ has burst forth from the tomb. He is risen! If that doesn't make you want to celebrate today, it's time to ask for a resurrection of your own!"
