A note from Pastor Owen...

"Few people have made as great an impact for God as Pastor Hsi of China. The chief inspiration of his life, and his strongest reason for faith was the fact of the resurrection of our Lord and Saviour from the dead. He came to the Lord with perfect confidence. "Jesus lives...He rose from the dead! Therefore nothing is impossible!" For years he had lived in constant fear of death and demons and despair. But when he was filled with the power of God, he renamed himself Sheng-Mo, meaning "demon-overcomer" or "conqueror of demons". Never for a moment relying on his own sufficiency, but "hidden in Christ" (Colossians 3:3), he went forth in the power of the resurrected One. In the strength of his new Master, Pastor His threw down the gauntlet to his old enemy. God powerfully used this man for His glory. Although filled with human flaws, nevertheless many were saved, delivered and discipled. Pastor His died on February 19, 1896. Only heaven will record how effective his life was. People who knew him said, "He gave all"
