A note from Pastor Owen...

"Many years ago in Oxford, England, two bishops were burned at the stake because of their efforts to make the Bible available to ordinary people in their own language. A crowd gathered to watch the execution of Hugh Lattimer and Nicholas Ridley. For certain, one of history's most dramatic moments occurred as the fires were lit. 'Be strong, Master Ridley', called Lattimer to his fellow martyr. 'Play the man; for today we will light such a candle as by the grace of God will never go out'. Even as you read this statement, people around the world are laying down their lives with this kind of abandon. Every day people are experiencing all kinds of suffering and deprivation to translate the Bible into dialects and languages where it still is not known. Take a moment to thank God for the Bible you hold in your hand. It is the Word of God showing all mankind how to discover eternal life through Jesus Christ. Pray also for the Bible translators who have dedicated their lives to ensure that every people group in the world has a copy of the scriptures in their own language."
