A note from Pastor Owen...

"It was an insightful day for me when I discovered the words, 'Saviour' and 'Lord' are not the same. Being our Saviour, God saves us from eternal destruction by giving us eternal life – This is what we receive from God. But his being our Lord is not the same thing. When Paul met Christ on the way to Damascus, he asked, 'Who are you, Lord? What do you want me to do?' The response to who God is, is what we can give to Him. While it is natural when we are new Christians to consider Jesus primarily as our Saviour, after we are Christians for a couple of years, we should be considering Him as Lord. Sadly, many Christians never move from one relationship to the other. When we say, 'My Lord', we must not say it only with our lips, but with a willingness to obey and serve Him with our whole hearts."
