

A note from Pastor Owen...

“One of the greatest moments in life is when you discover that God knows your name. At the very moment of your birth and even before, God knew all about you. God says to us, ‘Mike (Mary, Owen, Karl...), there is nobody else like you. You are absolutely original. You are one of a kind. Nobody with your genes. Nobody with your past or potential experience. Nobody who will have your parents, friends or your ministry. You are the one and only you that I made and I want to tell you who you are’. You never really know your true identity until you are close to the Lord. It is possible for a person to find herself and not find God. But I do not believe that you can find God truly without finding yourself. The message of hope that we have is that God loves us and knows our noses. Read Jeremiah 1:5, Genesis 32:22-32, Exodus 3-4, 1 Samuel 3 and Acts 9 and you will discover that each of the people in these passages encountered God directly when they heard their own name. The psychoanalyst, Erik Erikson, coined the phrase, ‘identity crisis’ and taught that man’s great quest was his own search for identity. But the child of God doesn’t need psychiatry to tell him who he is. He knows his search for himself is inextricably bound up with his love relationship with the Saviour, Jesus Christ”.
