

A note from Pastor Owen Scott...

It seems to me that many Christians have just enough Christianity to make them miserable. They haven't gone far enough for the fun to begin. They want three dollars worth of God...just enough to make them comfortable and secure, but not enough to explode their life with radical change and adventure. Jesus has risen from the dead and now calls us to surrender our lives to Him and follow him wherever he will lead us. God has a specific plan for each of us...but we must give ourselves completely to Him. Paul said, 'All I want is to know Christ and experience the power of His resurrection, to share in His sufferings and become like him in His death...' (Phil. 5:10). This is different from being religious. Those who have gone far enough for the fun wouldn't trade their experience for anything. They have been changed forever. They have discovered the excitement of having Jesus live His life in and through them. Their faith is real and dynamic and challenging. Life began for them when they asked Jesus to come into their hearts and take control. He's alive, dear friends...but make sure you go in far enough with Him for the fun to begin!
