

A note from Pastor Owen Scott...

Prayer was never meant to be incidental to the work of God. It IS the work of God. Prayer is the working power of all that God wants to do through His people. The spiritual history of our church is not measured in statistics, but in prayer depth. Prayer is the “Christian’s vital breath”. Isn’t this what we are missing today? The work of God only advances as God’s people call on His Name. The Lord is saying to the church, “Call unto me and I will answer thee and show thee great and mighty things which thou knowest not”. (Jeremiah 33:3) Our hearts are concerned for the locality where God has placed our church...Vancouver’s North Shore. This is our primary mission field. These are the people we long to see come to Christ in saving faith. The Lord is calling Valley Church to pray for this community. Let’s not see this as some demanding task that we must do, but rather to see the joy, the adventure, the power and the privilege of prayer. Let’s give ourselves to greater prayer and see those “great things” God has promised to show us as we call upon Him.
