

A note from Pastor Owen Scott...

The other day I said to some pastors that speaking in tongues is not the evidence of the baptism in the Holy Spirit. Not everyone agreed with me, but David DuPlessis had it right when he said, “Tongues is the consequence of the baptism in the Holy Spirit”. It is part of the package. The evidence of the baptism in the Holy Spirit is that you are empowered to serve God. Those who are filled with the Spirit have a “release” of the Spirit in their lives enabling them to utilize the charismatic gifts of the Holy Spirit in their ministries (1 Corinthians 12-14). The baptism in the Holy Spirit brings the power that we need to touch our world and its many needs. When we are baptized in the Holy Spirit we are “filled with God” and inspired and empowered for the work ahead. Today is Pentecost Sunday on the church calendar. Why don’t you ask the “baptizer” to fill you to overflowing with the Holy Spirit’s power. Surrender yourself completely to Him. Ask Him to give you the gift of the Holy Spirit. Thank Him for answering your prayer and begin to praise and thank Him. You can have your own personal Pentecost on Pentecost Sunday!
