

A note from Pastor Owen Scott...

In our relationship to God, we realize that the good news is not our response to a doctrine or a theology, but a response to a Person. The gospel is embodied in a person affirming us – Jesus Christ saying, “I love you unconditionally. Will you give me your life?” A true, affirmative commitment to Jesus Christ may be as simple and prosaic as this... “Well, Lord, I love you and here is my life. I’ve changed what I can, but there are certain things I can’t change. Dear Lord, I can’t promise that I’ll always be good. I want to be good, but I can’t promise that I will be. But here I am. I give myself to you. Change me from the inside out. Do with me what you will. Come and live inside of me and fill me with the power of the Holy Spirit. From here on, I am YOURS...Amen”.
