

A note from Pastor Owen Scott...

Eric Liddell was the famous Christian who ran for gold at the Paris Olympics in 1924. The film, Chariots of Fire was based on the life of this godly missionary. Although an ordinary and average person, he understood what it meant to be “fully surrendered to God”. It was said of Eric, “He was literally God-controlled, in his thoughts, judgments, actions and words to an extent never been surpassed and rarely seen equaled.” Eric never varied his practice of beginning each day with a full hour devoted to fellowship with God. Those who knew him well understood that the secret of his life was not a habit or a routine, but personal fellowship with Almighty God and complete surrender to Him. In his teachings, Eric would stress obedience as the secret of a guided life. He died in a Japanese Internment Camp in 1945 – a true disciple of Christ. No doubt that on that great day he will hear the voice of his Saviour... “Well done, good and faithful servant”.
