

A note from Pastor Owen Scott...

I love the book, “Abandoned to God”, the life story of Oswald Chambers by David McCasland. I have read it and re-read it and I am still able to discover many gems within its pages. One of Oswald Chambers life-principles was the words of Jesus, “Give to everyone who asks” (Luke 6:30). Whether it was a meal or a winter overcoat, no one was ever turned away. Some thought he showed a lack of discernment, but Oswald believed that beggars are sent to test our faith. “My duty is plain”, said Oswald, “to obey the command of God and give to everyone that asks. What the recipient may do with it is not my concern. Besides, the Lord always gives double for all that I give away. My responsibility is to obey the Words of Jesus and give. God will look after who asks.”
