

A note from Pastor Owen Scott...

While walking with Val in a shopping mall in Palm Springs, California, a couple of years ago, I found this note stuck to the bottom of my shoe...It said, “And HE shall be the stability of your times” (Isaiah 33:6). What are the odds of finding a Bible promise stuck to the bottom of your shoe? I have kept that card as a reminder that God is watching over all my comings and goings. Throughout my Bible, I have written the initials F.M. and A.M. F.M stands for “for me” and A.M. stands for “all mine”. These are verses that I have claimed as promises for my life or scriptures to be obeyed. What a blessing the scriptures have been in my life over the years. Just a few days ago I was reading Proverbs 16:3 and felt I should claim this as my own...“Commit your work to the Lord and your plans will be established”. Beside it I wrote “A.M.” I am fully believing this truth to be fulfilled in my heart and life! The Word of God must not only be read...it must be believed and claimed as God’s Word to us personally.
