

A note from Pastor Owen Scott...

I'm glad to be alive in the twenty-first century. I don't long for "the good old days". And it bothers me when I hear fellow believers talking about "old time religion" and how the Spirit really moved "back then". When our experiences and testimonies are all from the past, we can be sure of one thing...we have stopped growing! I have no desire to reminisce about the past...neither now nor when I'm 80. God deliver me from the "backward look". God is the God of the NOW...He calls Himself the great I AM. He is the God of today. The Spirit of the Lord is at work within you and I right now...at this moment. This is the moment to be alive. We have come to the Kingdom for such a time as this. I suspect the things that God is going to do in the next few years will be unbelievable. I can hardly wait! This is a frightening, terrifying, troubling and magnificent moment. You are ordained by God to serve Him in this moment. The Spirit is being outpoured on all flesh. The devil is mad because he knows his time is short. The battle lines are drawn. And you and I are here together to witness and experience it all. Fasten your seatbelts, saints. The ride of your life is about to begin!
