

A note from Pastor Owen Scott...

Valley Church people have a unique role to play. We are intended to be earth people, which we are by birth and heaven people which we are by new birth, both at the same time. This means we are people of two realms living in one of those realms. Our role is to tell the realm where we live what the other realm is like. Paul tells us in Philippians 1:20 that our citizenship is in heaven, but we are placed here in Vancouver to bring a touch of heaven wherever we go. It's a great adventure to be on, but it's not always easy because earth operates in a totally different manner than heaven. Jesus calls us to give our neighbours, friends and colleagues an example of Christian living that is real and practical. We are called to live so close to Jesus that our lifestyles become attractive. Christians do not always fulfill the role of being transmitters of heaven's lifestyle, but we should and we must, if we want the world to take our Saviour seriously.

Going everywhere...meeting needs in Jesus Name*
