

A note from Pastor Owen Scott...

God instructs the priests, “The fire on the altar must be kept burning; it must not go out” – Leviticus 6:12-13. Hold this picture in your mind as you come to your personal quiet time with Jesus. Add fresh fuel to the fire in your soul daily as you present yourself to the Lord. Fan the flame by adjusting your attitudes and reactions in joyful obedience. God calls his children to be “fervent in spirit” (Romans 12:11). Let your heart boil over with love. In the spiritual realm an elevated temperature is a good thing. God wants us to be “on fire” for Him. Dry times will come and go in the life of every Christian, but remind yourself that the normal experience is a heart glowing with the fire of the Lord! My prayer is “Light the fire, Lord. Don’t let the flame go out”.
