

A note from Pastor Owen Scott...

In his book, "Mountain Rain", missionary, James O. Fraser, had it right when he said, "All discouragement is of the devil". I agree with him. Most of us know what it is to feel overwhelmed by discouragement and even despair. Discouragement is to be resisted, just like sin. The answer to discouragement is definite resistance on the ground of the cross! Our Lord himself resisted the devil vocally, "Get thee behind me Satan!" We, in humble reliance on Him, do the same. We talk to the Enemy using the promises of scripture as weapons. We claim deliverance on the ground of our Redeemer's victory on the cross. We shout our resistance to Satan and all his thoughts. In times of conflict, repeating scripture out loud is immensely helpful. Command the discouragement to leave and declare the Jesus is our Victor.
