

A note from Pastor Owen Scott...

My wife and I live in an 820 square foot condominium. Our home is small, but it's our home and at the end of the day we love returning to it. It doesn't matter whether one lives in a large house or a small apartment...home is home. There's no place on earth like it. Warmed up leftovers on your own table taste better than steak or fish at a fine restaurant. You can eat some lovely meals at the home of your friends, but there's nothing like sitting down to a good meal in your own home. Your home is your castle...your hide-away... your haven...a place where you can relax, put your feet up and be totally yourself. What greater words can you hear than the words, "Let's go home". You battle the world all day long, but at the end of the day, you head to the safest place you know...your home! Tonight, when you hang up your coat, lift your heart to the Lord and say, Thank you, Lord. It's good to be home."

Valley Church...

There's a place for you!

Going everywhere...meeting needs in Jesus Name*
