

A note from Pastor Owen Scott...

At the beginning of the twentieth century a remarkable movement of the Holy Spirit took place. It was the rise of Pentecostalism. Now, a century later, Pentecostal and charismatics represent probably a third of all Christians. This great renewal in history was centered around an overwhelming experience of God accompanied by the gift of tongues as evidence of that baptism. God's promise to "pour out His Spirit on all flesh" (Joel 2:28-29; Acts 2:1-4) is being fulfilled today over all the world! This is the age of the Spirit. Whoever is thirsty is invited to drink freely from the water of life. The Lord desires to fill all of us with His power and presence. Let us open our heart to the Spirit. He has been given to equip us for service and mission and to intensify our love and worship. The Holy Spirit cannot be muzzled or contained. He's alive! Let Him fill us with Himself. Receive Him by faith. What happened to the disciples in the first century and again in 1906 in California continues to happen everywhere today in fulfillment of Acts 2:28. Spirit of God...come!
