

A note from Pastor Owen Scott...

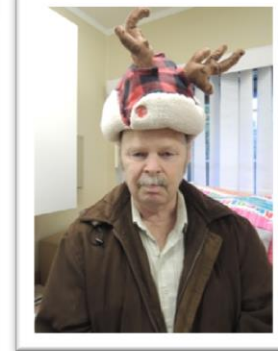

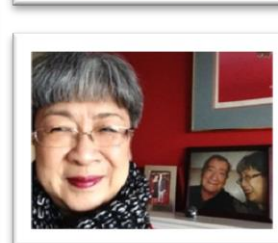

Eric Liddell (1902-1945) was the Olympic champion who inspired the movie, Chariots of Fire. He died as a missionary to China. A close friend described Eric this way..."He was, literally, God-controlled in his thoughts, judgments, actions and words to an extent I have never seen surpassed. The most noteworthy feature in Eric's life was the regular and rapid progress of his spiritual development". Here was the secret of his rich growth in Christ...

- 1) Absolute surrender to the will of God
- 2) Regular times of devotion and persistent prayer
- 3) Getting up early to seek God's face in prayer
- 4) His gift of happiness and joie-de-vivre

He loved the good things in life as much as any of us, but all his happiness had its basis in his serene faith in God, his love for God and his appreciation of God's gifts. Tonight why don't you watch the movie, Chariots of Fire and rejoice in what a true disciple is like.
