

A note from Pastor Owen Scott...

Acts chapters 10 and 11 in the Bible make a turning point in the history of the church as the Holy Spirit was poured out upon Peter and all those who heard him preach in Cornelius' household. What a moment it was...angelic visitations, a trance, a vision, God's audible voice, and an outbreak of the Holy Spirit poured out on all who were present. This "suddenly from heaven" moment took the apostles by surprise. Peter barely began his sermon when the Spirit powerfully interrupts him and overwhelms his hearers. God himself was pouring out His power and presence upon the church. This outpouring was well beyond Peter's control. It was a God-thing. Take a moment to read Acts 10&11. Decide in your heart to "let go and let God" and together let's trust the Lord that we, too, will experience a few "suddenly from heaven" moments of our own.
