

A note from Pastor Owen Scott...

Paul, the apostle, tells us that it is our eternal destiny to be conformed to the image of Christ (Romans 8:29; 2 Corinthians 3:18). All the spiritual disciplines point us to one thing – Christlikeness. Mother Teresa perhaps said it best, “We must become holy, not because we want to feel holy, but because Christ must be able to live His life fully in us”. Life in the church services and in the small groups is not designed to produce a finished product, but to “model” for each other the “process of transformation”. We are called to live God’s love in a lost world. But to live love, we must bear God’s likeness. To reflect His character, we must have His character. It is truth that is communicated in the context of a close and loving relationship that will be used by God to remold and renew the believer’s personality toward Christ. For truth to have its transforming impact on the human personality, love is utterly essential! “Lord, reduce me to love”.
