

A note from Pastor Owen Scott...

Brennan Manning once said, "If there are few 'power-ridden', Spirit-filled Christians in the church today, it is because so few of us have gotten into the business of what Paul calls 'dying daily' to self-centeredness in all its forms including self-promotion and self-condemnation. A study of church history reveals that every time the Spirit of God blows with hurricane force through the Body, it is always through these prophets and lovers who have surrendered to the folly of the cross".
