

A note from Pastor Owen Scott...

One of the Holy Spirit's ministries is to make us absolutely sure. Sure that we are sinners and sure that we need a Saviour! The Bible declares "All have sinned and come short of the glory of God"...everyone in the world...you...me, all of us without exception. And for that reason, everyone needs a Saviour. We don't do people any favors by telling them they are good people and only need to correct a few errors of poor judgment. The so-called Christian churches that teach that we already contain within us all the potential and goodness we need...that God approves of us as we are...that we only need to learn how to release the love and goodness within us, contribute a great deal to the broken, neurotic lostness of our North American culture. God's estimation of you and me and all the rest of the world is this..."There is NONE righteous, no, not one". When we accept God's evaluation of us, then we can fall relieved at the feet of Jesus Christ to receive forgiveness and healing. Then, and only then, is there true goodness in us. Any virtue, or goodness, or potential we might have been born with is as filthy rags compared with the righteousness God gives us. The contrast between the righteousness we try to manufacture and the one God's Son gives us is unbelievable. It can't be earned, learned, deserved, or achieved. We can only receive it as a gift. No wonder this is called "so great salvation".
