

A note from Pastor Owen Scott...

The better we know the Bible, the better we can know the person of God, the will of God and how to work for God. Christians who live in the Word are used by God to get His work done in this world. Your place of service may not be particularly a large one, but it's an important one, and God put you there because you're the right person for the job right now. God wants to work through you to get something accomplished for His glory. No matter what ministry the Lord has assigned to you, you can't succeed apart from the Word of God. The older I get, the more I am convinced that knowing the Bible is the only way to get to know the heart and mind of God. I suggest that you set aside a daily time to read the Bible. Make it a priority that nobody can change. For me personally, I like the morning, but there may be another time that is best for you.

There's a place for you!
