

A note from Pastor Owen Scott...

I have noticed very often that when individuals begin to seek the Lord for the baptism of the Holy Spirit, they also begin to right wrongs of the past. They get busy writing letters, going to others, asking forgiveness, making things right and correcting such things that before would have passed unnoticed. And when all has been taken away, the Holy Spirit makes His blessed entry into their lives in an Acts 2:4 fashion. The heart must be made clean. When all conscious sin has been dealt with, the Lord sees that we desire cleanliness and are wholly given up to Him, then He immerses us in the Holy Spirit. He puts His anointing upon the heart that is clean and honest. The Holy Spirit will not take up His residence in a heart that is not clean! A spiritual experience in God always begins with a cleansing of the heart. This is always the starting part for any blessing God has promised to give. Thank God for the blood of Jesus, which, if we confess our need before Him, can cleanse us completely. Unforgiveness, bitterness, rebellion, lust, uncleanness, adultery, lying, stealing, deception, anger, hatred, wrong attitudes, etc. are the very things that hinder the Lord from taking complete control of our hearts. If anything is impure in a life, it always has its residence in the heart. Would you ask the Lord to cleanse your heart today? Having our heart cleansed from sin by the blood of Jesus and surrendering our lives completely to Him paves the way for a sure and certain baptism of His Holy Spirit!
