

A note from Pastor Owen Scott...

Recently I had the privilege of being part of a Christian Ashram. It is a spiritual retreat centered around Christ. The Ashram concept was founded by E. Stanley Jones of India. Their motto is "Jesus is Lord". Disciples of Christ gather to be renewed by the Spirit of God. One aspect of the retreat is called Hour of the Open Heart. In an atmosphere of openness and honesty, three questions are presented...

1) Why have you come?

2) What do you want?

3) What do you really need?

I was encouraged by the honesty of the group. Perhaps it would be helpful to ask ourselves these three questions here at Valley Church. Tell the Lord why you have come. By faith believe that your need will be met.

There's a place for you!
