

A note from Pastor Owen Scott...

At this stage of my journey with Christ, I find myself praying for two things...

- 1) For the wisdom and knowledge that comes with the fear of the Lord (Psa. 110:11)
- 2) For the fullness of the Holy Spirit in my life

The Lord hates presumption, pride, arrogance and rashness. Read through the Psalms and the Book of Proverbs and take notes of all the places where wisdom and knowledge are mentioned. My prayer is, “Dear Lord, be Thou my wisdom!” Although I have been baptized with the Holy Spirit and speak in tongues regularly, I sense a great need to rely on the Holy Spirit’s work and the empowerment that Christ promised. With all our hearts, let us seek union with God and the fullness of the Spirit. “Wisdom and power” is our cry.
