

A note from Pastor Owen Scott...

I have come to believe that the prayer of praise is the highest form of communion with God and one that always releases a great deal of power into our lives. Praising the Lord is not something we do because we feel good...rather it is an act of obedience. After the prayer of praise is offered to God by sheer willpower when we persist in it, somehow the power of God is released into us and into the situation! The enemy's arrows just can't penetrate the joy of someone who is praising the Lord. God is calling us to praise Him. We offer up the "sacrifice of praise". As we begin to give thanks, the Holy Spirit lifts our heaviness and fills our hearts with joy and peace.
