

A note from Pastor Owen Scott...

Eric Liddell was the famous athlete who ran for gold at the Paris Olympics in 1924. His life story in 1981 was turned into a famous film called “Chariots of Fire”. Here was how Eric Liddell prayed when he was alone...“Father, I pray that no circumstances, however bitter or however drawn out, may cause me to break Thy law, the law of love, to Thee and to my neighbor. That I not become resentful, have hurt feelings, hate, or become embittered by life’s experiences. But in and through all I may see Thy guiding hand and have a heart full of gratitude for Thy daily mercy, daily love, daily power and daily presence”. Lord, cause us to pray like Eric Liddell!
