

A note from Pastor Owen Scott...

The pages of the Bible and the pages of history are filled with reports of answered prayer. Prayer is not spiritual self-hypnosis. We don't pray because it makes us feel better. Prayer is not a giant aspirin. We pray because God has commanded us to pray and because prayer is the God-appointed means for a believer to receive what God wants to give him. Prayer keeps a Christian in the will of God and living in the will of God keeps a Christian in the place of blessing and service. What breathing is to a physical man, prayer is to a spiritual man. If we do not pray, we faint. Our lives are to be lived in dependence on the Lord. As we begin our week of prayer, our goal is that each of us will meet the Lord in a fresh way and experience His love in the depth of our beings. We hope this emphasis on prayer will strengthen and deepen you as we believe Him for greater things...in our lives...in our church...and in our community.
