

A note from Pastor Owen Scott...

Growth in Christlikeness isn't magic. It requires repeated action on our part. Over the years I have asked the members of our church, "How many of you, in the next 5-20 years, want to be totally committed to Jesus Christ...a disciple of the King, anointed by the Holy Spirit, yielded to the scriptures and surrendered to His will?" Who wouldn't want a life like this? Dawson Trotman, founder of the navigators, used to say, "You are going to be what you are now becoming". The Bible speaks of this process of character development, "And we all with unveiled face beholding the glory of the Lord are being transformed into the same image from one degree of glory to another" – 2 Corinthians 3:18. We become, I suspect, what we choose to behold. Behold Christ Jesus and you become Christ-like. Gaze upon immorality and self-centeredness and it's equally predictable what we will become. Who we become like will be the cumulative result of the daily choices we make. Our choices flow out of our hearts and therefore we must take care to guard our hearts from all contamination of soul and spirit. "Lord Jesus, please keep me gazing on you...gazing on your beauty and your love. Keep me gazing on who you are and what you've done. Fix my eyes upon you, precious Lord and transform me from the inside out. Amen".
