

A note from Pastor Owen Scott...

For all of us, future plans are uncertain, but we all know that there is first God's plan to be lived and we can safely leave everything to Him, or as Oswald Chambers was fond of saying, "carefully careless of it all". I lately have found myself focusing on Psalm 121. This is where we gain our help. This is the place where we draw our strength from. Some months ago I was blessed by my meditation on Psalm 87:1-7 – "All my springs are in you". The scriptures are a valuable source of guidance. When you find a verse that speaks to you personally, claim it for your own. Camp out on it for a while and let God speak to you about the journey that He has you on. Then He will give you another promise...then another and another. Thank the Lord for the guidance of His Word. Lead on O King Eternal. Guide me by your Word.
