

A note from Owen & Val Scott...

A few favorites this summer...

- This week we took the Langdale ferry and spent a day exploring the quaint little village of Gibsons on the Sunshine Coast. Don't miss the seawalk...or lunch sitting on the wharf with an amazing sandwich from Smoke on the Water BBQ Shack followed with a mouthwatering gelato from Mike's (the peanut butter flavor is to die for!). The museum is worth checking out as well.
- This spring we discovered Le Marche St. George, a wonderful neighbourhood café and coffee shop off Main Street and 28th in Vancouver - delicious croissants and crepes! Main Street is a favorite destination...BAKERS DOZEN's vast selection of unique antiques is always fun. Our new favorite weekend brunch spot is The Acorn at 3995 Main St...it's so good you won't even miss the bacon!
- For nature lovers and bird watchers, there's a lovely walk to take through the Maplewood Flats Conservation Area off Dollarton Highway
- Lighthouse Park in West Vancouver is also a favorite walk...you'd never guess you were in an urban area. We sometimes take a book and a thermos of tea along and sit on the rocks overlooking the water.
- Bowen Island...lunch at the Snug Café...a walk around Killarney Lake...a short ferry ride away
- Friday evenings at the Shipyards Market - a great end of the work week spot to have supper sitting in the pier...a couple of dozen food trucks to choose from! We're fans of "Mom's Grilled Cheese"...always hits the spot!
- On a rainy evening take the chance to watch "Eddie the Eagle"...the true story of a British ski-jumper who entered the Calgary Winter Olympics
- If you like Indian food, try Indian Fusion on Lonsdale...tandoori chicken and veggie korma - yum!
