

A note from Pastor Owen...

The American novelist, Gore Vidal, has long designated a place to be laid to rest in Washington's Rock Creek Cemetery. When Vidal was asked what he wished to have inscribed on his tombstone, he readily replied, "to be continued". That is precisely what every person of faith defines death to be...a mere intermission between life and eternity! I am convinced that God sent His Son to live this life with us, to die for us and to transform our lives and us in the process. How wonderful that this life on planet earth will "be continued". The best part is still ahead. We are not going somewhere...but to Someone. Author, David Yount, explains, "We can go gentle into that good night. There will be no cause to rage against the dying of the light. We will go gentle into that good night...to an eternal dawn."
