

A note from Pastor Owen...

Tricia Rhodes, in her book on prayer, “The Soul at Rest”, tells how God spoke to her through Jesus’ words on the cross...“It is finished”. She saw, like never before, how much it cost the Lord to show her how much He loved her. She was stunned and staggered by the immensity of that love and recorded the following dialogue in her prayer journal...

“Lord, your love...how can I comprehend it? I know I have taken it lightly. This kind of love rocks me to my core, makes me want to be good enough...to make it worth your while. And yet, if I could have done that, you wouldn’t have had to come and die.

I say, “I’m not worth it”.

I hear you saying, “You are”.

I say, “You should never have done that”.

I hear you saying, “I did”.

I say, “I’ll make it up to you”.

I hear you saying, “Don’t try”.

I say, “What then? How can I live with this knowledge? It is too wonderful for me to comprehend”.

I hear you say, “Live in my love. It is for you I gave my life. I wanted you to know how much I care for you, how much I love you...to what lengths I would go to envelop you in my commitment to you. Try to learn to live in my love...this is all I ask”

I say, “I will, Lord”.
