

A note from Pastor Owen...

Water baptism is far more than a person just witnessing to friends. It is a rite of passage from the kingdom of darkness to the kingdom of light. It is the first step into a lifetime of obedience to the commands of Jesus.

Something of eternal significance happens in heavenly places when a person is baptized. Satan understands the significance of baptism and fears the new disciple who is going to actively obey all that Jesus has commanded! We will be having a water baptism service on Easter Sunday, April 16th. If you would like this step of obedience, contact the church office at info@valleychurch.ca or 604-980-0307 to let us know.
