

A note from Pastor Owen...

Jesus does not call us to save the world and he did not call us to love the world. The task is too big. But He did ask us to love our neighbor. And who is our neighbor? It's the needy person that God brings to our attention. No matter if that person is across the street, across the nation or across the world...when God puts you on a collision course with a person in need, then that is your neighbor! We can all be sensitive to neighbours who cross our path, whether it's in the parking lot or on the other side of the world. Read Deuteronomy 15:11; Psalm 41:1; Luke 14:13-14 and James 2:15-17. Have you been helping any neighbours lately? Don't stop now. Keep going and keep loving. Don't become "weary in well doing". Your labor will not be in vain! Remember...we can't save the world, but we can reach that needy person who God brings to our attention.
